

An interesting exchange with Netherland students!

We exchanged with students from Netherland and introduced ourselves to each other.

All of them liked doing sports.
They said that pickled herring is very famous there.

It was difficult to communicate in English, but it was refreshing to share each other's cultures.

